

And the next day it rained!
It is barely possible that Mr. Paynter pulled through.
Geeh! Just think of six Republican Congressmen from Kentucky!
The newly-elected county officers will assume their duties January 1st, 1895.

PUBLIC LEDGER

THIRD YEAR. MAYSVILLE, KY., THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 8, 1894. ONE CENT.

BY SPECIAL PERMISSION OF JUDGE HELM OF NEWPORT.

The Democrats seem to have tumbled into Mr. Waterson's "open grave."

Can't the Honorable Huckleberry A. O'Stanley be induced to come down from Fleming and tell us what he thinks about it now?

Mr. Frank P. O'Donnell, who is a nice young man in all that the term implies, was slain in the house of his pretended friends.

One thing is certain—The Bulletin will not be claiming everything in Mason county for the next four years. That's a sure pop.

The LEDGER ventures to ask if it isn't about time for another Democratic gerrymander?

If the Democrats of Mason county don't believe in Free-trade, they certainly do believe in a free ballot.

It is an awful cold snap for Mason county Democrats.

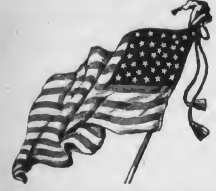

Uncle Billy Howe was beaten for Magistrate through the failure to have his name placed on the glorious Republican ticket.

Thomas A. Davis received three votes in the Fifth Ward for Appellate Judge. When Tom Paynter hears this it will scare him up.

Rolla Hart can now return to that Fleming county farm where he farms so much; and it is time to put in a crop. We suggest rye—old rye.

This was a campaign of education. Now's the time to join the Republican party.
Chairman Kehoe ought to have sent out a few more speakers.
John L. Whitaker got 1 vote for Appellate Judge in the Third Ward.

THE NEWS GETS A GOOD DEAL BETTER AS IT GROWS OLDER!

GEWHIZ!

SAM'L J. PUGH!

He Beats Rawleigh K. Hart By Over Seven Hundred!

Elected!
By the eternal!
It's scarcely necessary to enter into the details.

They will come along later and in better shape than we could possibly hope to present them now.

For present purposes it is enough to know that Sam Pugh will be the next Congressman from this District.

And that the Hon. Rawleigh Kendall Hart will not.

Private advices from Judge Pugh himself indicate his election by a majority of at least 700.

And the band played—at several county precincts where the jockey orators orated.

Returns from other Districts show that the Republicans have done fairly well. They have elected six Congressmen.

Good Lord, just think of it! Six Republican Congressmen from Kentucky, when the great Courier-Journal said we couldn't possibly elect one!

Here's the successful Republicans: W. G. Hunter, Third District. John W. Lewis, Fourth District. Walter Evans, Fifth District. George Denny, Jr., Seventh District. Samuel J. Pugh, Ninth District. David G. Colson, Eleventh District.

And there are several precincts that have not been heard from.

Mrs. Priscilla Froman, widow of James Froman, and one of our oldest residents, died yesterday afternoon at her home on Lexington street, aged 80. She leaves four children—one son and three daughters. The funeral will take place from the residence tomorrow afternoon at 1:30, with services by the Rev. E. B. Cate.

HER CAUSE OF WOR.
"Why the worried, troubled face, Pretty maid, may I inquire; Has affliction left its trace? Some sad news by mail or wire?" Slowly shook her golden head; "No sir," tearfully she said— "Punctured my pneumatic tire."
—Kansas City Journal.

Matter for publication in The Ledger MUST be handed in before 9 o'clock in the morning.

Those "liberal minded Republicans" that The Bulletin talked so much about hopped over into the Democratic corral at the wrong time. They can now eat hush.

MASON COUNTY

The Leopard, Br'er Marsh, Has Changed His Spots!

During the recent campaign it must have been apparent to the most casual observer that THE LEDGER refrained from any comparison between the respective candidates for office in this county.

It was the aim to let our friends the enemy do all the "bickering," while the Republicans should industriously "saw wood."

And it appears that the plan worked to a charm.

If you don't believe it, consult the figures in the annexed table.

Congress.	A. J.	County Judge	County Clerk	Sheriff	Assessor	Jailer	Surgeon	Coroner
W. G. Hunter	100	100	100	100	100	100	100	100

David G. Colson	100	100	100	100	100	100	100	100

They tell their own story. And are of such proportions that there will be no substantial change.

For those who went down before the avalanche of public opinion, we have none but words of kindness.

To those who will assume the management of county affairs next January, it is suggested that Republican Administration will be put upon its first trial in Mason county.

With the Republican party "Public Office is a Public Trust" has not been a cheap, unmeaning phrase of the Grover Cleveland stamp, but the representatives of that party have invariably given their best efforts to serve the people efficiently, economically and with satisfaction.

The people will have a watchful eye on affairs and they have a right to expect and even demand good service at the hands of their agents.

The gerrymander didn't save Rolla Hart. Nothing short of a salamander could have done that.

FLEMINGSBURG, KY.
Thomas A. Davis: Republicans carry everything in this county except Hell and Centerville and are fighting for that. Pugh carries the county by a small majority. Republicans are wild with enthusiasm and red liquor.

C. L. DUDLEY.

JUDGE'S OFFICE, NOV. 8th.
Chairman Kylo,
Mason County—
Send Huckleberry O'Stanley to Gillilan's Schoolhouse; let Tom Scatterly go to Pluington; have Bugjule Taylor at Champe Farrow's tomorrow night; Pill Whitaker must go to Plumville; Will Free Cole can hold 'em level at Burr Oak. The populace must be educated.

R. B. Bouden, a brother of Mr. John W. Bouden of the First National Bank of this city, was elected Magistrate of Middlesboro District. He is a Republican.

If Col. Walter Evans is a "cold man" now, what will he be after the November election? It is going to be a frigidly hard winter for Republican candidates hereabouts.—Courier-Journal, Sept. 26th.

You're pretty nearly as good at prophecy as Br'er Marsh.

In the report of the Council proceedings it was shown that the Committee on Claims and Accounts was directed to make an adjustment with Captain E. W. Fitzgerald, ex-Chief of Police. When Captain Fitzgerald went out of office he turned the delinquent list over to Chief Ort, and the committee will meet tonight to give the proper credits. In justice to Captain Fitzgerald it is due to say that his accounts with the city are all right.

Now that all THE LEDGER's predictions have been more than verified, you may put it down as a surety that the purse strings will loosen and business take a boom.

The demand for yesterday's LEDGER was like the Republican majorities in New York, Pennsylvania, Ohio and elsewhere—unprecedented. They went off like hot cakes. Now is the time to advertise.

The proposition to prohibit stock from running at large in the Sixth Ward was defeated, owing to the fact that so many persons voted against the measure who thought they were voting in favor of it. The proposition was not properly stated on the pollbooks.

THE LEDGER has had an active part in the way of educating the masses.

Miss Barnes, ably assisted, will give a musicale in the M. E. Church at Maysville Friday evening, November 9th, at 7 o'clock.

Never in the history of Maysville newspapers was there such a rush as was witnessed yesterday at THE LEDGER office. Now is the time to subscribe.

The hearing of Officer W. A. Stockdale, for killing Boley Price, has been postponed until 10 o'clock Monday morning, the Commonwealth not being ready.

Mr. L. P. Fronk and Miss Virgie Lee Mason were married Wednesday, October 31st, at the home of the bride, Chester street, Maysville. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Cate of the Christian Church. After the ceremony and congratulations an elegant repast was served to a large number of invited guests. The cakes and creams vanished like a marriage feast. Mr. and Mrs. Fronk left immediately on the L. & N. upon a short bridal trip to New Orleans and other points. The presents were elegant and numerous. The groom is a Maysville gentleman, and is well and favorably known. The happy pair start on life's voyage together with the best wishes of a host of friends. Mr. and Mrs. Fronk will reside in Maysville.

Tuesday night a C. & O. train ran over and killed a man named Lemons, who was walking on the track between South Hipley and Dover. He was seen a short time before, being very drunk. Lemons lived on the farm of J. Perrant, about two miles back of Dover. The remains were taken to the latter place, where Squire Barnshaw held an inquest.

MCKINLEY AND WILSON ABROAD.

In 1890 William McKinley was burned in effigy in the English manufacturing city of Sheffield; but in 1894 William L. Wilson was dined and wooed in London because he is the author of a Free-trade Tariff Bill. These are significant facts.

FARMERS of Central Ohio are greatly disappointed at the low price of hay. During the last harvest they stacked and mowed large quantities of excellent hay, for which they expected to get from $10 to $15 a ton, but their hopes have been blasted on account of the Canadian hay, which is now being shipped to distributing points near them almost if not entirely free of duty, forcing the price of domestic hay down to $5 per ton. Many farmers are discouraged, and are selling out and quitting the business of farming. Rab for Free-trade.

FREE-TRADE fanatics propose opening our market to foreign-made goods, free from duty, because, made by cheaper labor, they will be sold to us at a lower price. Thus all capitalists, all men having money laid away, or who have an assured income, will be able to purchase at a lower price. But what about our workmen, who, unemployed, receive no wages, and have no money to purchase these cheap European goods. The result of Democratic Free-trade is to strike down the workman for the benefit of the capitalists, whom they affect to deprecate.

M'DOUGLE-DARNALL.
MR. HARRY M'DOUGLE AND MISS ANNA DARNALL WED.

Brilliant Nuptials Yesterday at the Central Presbyterian Church—A Brief Description of the Wedding.

All weddings are joyous occasions and all brides lovely and beautiful; so those who assembled in the Central Presbyterian Church yesterday to witness the ceremony joining two delectably popular young people were in just such delightful thoughts.

The nuptials were to have been solemnized at 12:30 o'clock, but by dint of good luck the party were thirty minutes late, giving the vast audience ample opportunity to enjoy the exquisite musical program which Miss Blatterman, the organist, rendered—"My Old Kentucky Home," "Swanee River," "Annie Laurie," "Promie Me" and "Call Me Tine One," succeeded each other with such marvelous blending and such perfect fingerings as to speak the splendid artist Miss Blatterman.

The decorations were very elaborate, loving hands having deftly placed palms and ferns and potted plants all channel rail and rostrum were clothed in verdant garments, while hanging here and nodding there the November beauty, chrysanthemum, gave welcome to the many friends who came to wish God speed to the beautiful bride and handsome groom.

Our tides of olive green had excluded the light of somber fall, and from crystal chandeliers mellow, glowing light shows down to cheer and brighten the day.

At the hour of 1 o'clock the doors leading from the vestibule were thrown open, the organ gave forth the strains of Mendelssohn, and simultaneously, with the appearing of the ushers, Messrs. Thomas Darnall, brother of the bride, Will Harris, Harry B. Wood and Robert L. Hoeftel, followed by the bride, attired with an old rose tulle and with green, with green velvet trimmings, most elaborately made and a veritable dream of the modiste's art, hat to match, with old rose velvet and catch up of blinding green, in her hands she carried bride's rose—not half so sweet as the one which carried them—this lovely bride, walking with her cousin, while the groom appeared with his best man, his brother-in-law, C. M. McQuay, preceded by Rev. H. M. Scudder. Slowly to the altar after the procession moved. A graceful more placed bride and groom together facing the audience, while in a semi-circle the attendants formed themselves, all making so pretty a picture as one might wish to look upon. When the music died away on softest zephyr wings the Rev. Mr. Scudder, in an impressive manner, recited the holy words which united Anna C. Darnall and Harry C. McQuay, prefacing the ceremony with some beautiful words upon the sacredness and solemnity of the marriage state. When the benediction had been pronounced, Miss Blatterman played "Träumerei" as the party left the church.

It was a beautiful wedding, just such simple, quiet elegance prevailing as to be characteristic of the contracting party.

While the day outside was gloomy, yet no one seemed to mind this, for this day two hearts were joined in wedlock as true as ever beat, as loving as ever lived and as capable of living life in summer clime always, for when adversity and trouble, sickness and trials shall fall, as fast they must, that they will not remember their vows, and pure love shall make bright every path.

DEPEND ON THE PAPER.
When there is an issue of variety between a reputable newspaper and a Cabinet officer it is generally safer to believe the newspaper than the official. The paper is sometimes misled into an error, and the official sometimes finds it convenient to state the facts but it is the business of the newspaper to set the truth, and that, to put it politely, is not the business of the official-holder. It is a tradition in the Departments at Washington to deny every newspaper story not published by authority. The right facts may be in the official's hands, but it is the business of the newspaper to set the truth, and that, to put it politely, is not the business of the official-holder. WHY IT WAS SO.

Editor Watterson Gives His Views on the Situation.

He Roasts Factionists and Party Leaders as Incompetent.

Not a Ray of Light to Be Seen Anywhere on the Democratic Horizon—Let Good Democrats Everywhere Put on Their Thinking Caps for Themselves.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Nov. 8.—Henry Watterson, in writing of Tuesday's landslide, says in Wednesday morning's Courier-Journal: Incompetency in the leadership and factions among the rank and file have culminated in a democratic disaster all along the line on this 6th of November, 1894. There is not a ray of light to be seen anywhere on the democratic horizon. The democratic majority in the house of representatives disappears. The returns up to 2 a. m. showed a republican gain of 62 members. Enough state legislatures have been captured by the republicans to relieve that party of the necessity of relying on congressional votes to control the senate. The state of New York is republican by 150,000. Tammany is overwhelmed. New England democrats have scarcely enough to bless themselves with.

The west sets aside populists and factionists, and rolls up immense republican majorities, though not equal Pennsylvania's 250,000, or Ohio's 120,000. The foothold for which the democrats have struggled in Wisconsin, Michigan, Iowa and other states, is cut out from under them, and old-time republican majorities disappear, and even the south is slunk. The democratic majority in Texas is cut down. North Carolina and Virginia democrats lost heavily, and it is not unlikely that Tennessee has elected a republican governor. Kentucky has suffered from the universal stampede. The First, Second and Eighth districts have certainly elected democrats to congress.

In the Third district returns indicate the defeat of C. W. McHenry by W. Hunter (rep.). In the Fifth the democratic nominee for congress is overwhelmed with that of the treasury ticket. The Sixth district is close, but Henry (dem.) is probably re-elected. Henry (rep.) leads Owens (dem.) 226 votes in the Seventh district, with eight voting precincts to hear from. The Ninth is close, and reports thus far received are favorable to S. J. Pugh (rep.). Heckler for the short term and Kendall for the long term seem to have been elected by the democrats in the Tenth. L. G. Colon (rep.) has probably been elected in the Eleventh. This is the sum total and had enough. Let good democrats hereafter put on their thinking caps for themselves. May the guilty be punished. May the right be vindicated. Above all, let it be remembered that the world does not end with this election."

THREE MILLIONS.

Mr. Vanderbilt Agrees to Pay His Wife in Settlement.

NEW YORK, Nov. 8.—The initial step in the proceedings for a divorce between Mr. and Mrs. William K. Vanderbilt is said to have been taken within the past two weeks. The action will be brought in Rhode Island.

It is said that Mr. Vanderbilt has agreed to pay Mrs. Vanderbilt $3,000,000. This is to be in settlement of all claims of divorce which Mrs. Vanderbilt has made. The sum was settled upon after a long consultation with the Vanderbilt family lawyers. As Mr. Vanderbilt is many times a millionaire he can settle this upon his wife without much trouble. The two oldest children will be allowed to remain in the custody of Mr. Vanderbilt, while the other children will remain with the mother.

The divorce case is now likely to be pushed.

On Monday Hon. A. C. Clark filed a replication in the Coleman-Rayton divorce case. The last is now joined and testimony can be taken at any time the parties agree upon.

The testimony will probably be taken in private before a special master in chancery.

The czar's America.

ST. PETERSBURG, Nov. 8.—The czar is showing great activity in answering the many telegrams of condolence and expressions of loyalty which he receives, and the impression prevails that he is trying to demonstrate the fact that he is courteous and genial, and that Russia is extremely loyal. Replying to a message of sympathy and loyalty from the nobles of Moscow, the czar said: "In union with you I shall find strength to fulfill the arduous duty which has devolved upon me, so early, and I shall devote all my power to the service of my dear country."

Outrages by Desperados.

FR. SMITH, Ark., Nov. 8.—Jim French and three other members of the Cook gang assaulted three girls in the suburbs of Oelsgarth, L. T. After committing the filthy crimes the bandits mounted their horses and rode off. A posse of citizens was at once organized and started in pursuit of the bandits, but as far as heard from they failed to capture them.

Man's a Bootmaker.

COLUMBIA, O., Nov. 8.—The monument (my Jewels) now being erected in the capital grounds seems to be a good one. Two weeks ago one of the laborers employed in its erection dropped dead of heart disease. Wednesday Edwin Davis, another laborer, employed here, met his death in precisely the same way.

CHINA CONFESSES.

That She Is Too Weak to Resist Japan—Prince Kung Says the War Must End.

LOUISVILL, Nov. 8.—The Times says in a special dispatch from Tien-Tsin that the representatives of all the powers were assembled by the Tsungli-Yamen to hear the Chinese government's statement respecting the critical situation of affairs.

Prince Kung, president of the Tsungli-Yamen, calmly avowed the impotence of China to withstand the Japanese attack and appealed to the powers to intervene, saying that China was willing to abandon her sovereignty over Corea and pay a war indemnity.

The ministers applauded the frankness of this confession, and promised to support China's appeal to their respective governments, with the view of restoring peace in order to avert the dangers threatening all interests. The French minister believed in taking a leading part in the proposed intervention.

BRILLIANT SCHEME.

To Blow Up the Japanese Navy—The Commissioners Arrived.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 8.—Chin Tien Moore, officially designated Charles T. Moore, was until recently an official of the Chinese legation here. Some time ago he went to Providence, R. I., where he secured the services of an expert in explosives named Cameron, employed at the Hottel-land gun factory. Cameron was on the Netherby during the Brazilian revolution. Moore also invented John White, an inventor, and the trio started for China under assumed names. They have been arrested by the Japanese military authorities at Yokohama. According to reports received by the Japanese minister here and communicated to the state department, documents were found on their persons showing they had agreed to blow up the Japanese navy in eight weeks by the use of torpedoes. All three are held as prisoners.

THE MAYSVILLE REPUBLICAN

WEEKLY PUBLIC LEDGER.

Did U?

Did you ever think that relatives or friends who have moved to distant places—gone West, perhaps, to grow up with the country—are always glad to hear from their "Old Kentucky Home?" And did it ever occur to you that a single copy of THE MAYSVILLE REPUBLICAN—the weekly edition of THE PUBLIC LEDGER—contains more home news than you could embrace in a hundred ordinary letters? And did it ever strike you that you can send the paper to your relatives and friends for a whole year at less cost than you can write a letter every week? Besides, don't you think a year's subscription to THE REPUBLICAN would be a present highly appreciated by those at a distance? Suppose you try it and hear what they have to say on the subject.

STILL GROWING.

Republicans Will Have Two Hundred and Fifty Congressmen.

Solid Delegations in Twenty-Three and a Majority of Other States.

The Tennessee Republicans Elect a Governor and Four Congressmen—Massachusetts a Republican Legislature and Seven Congressmen.

COLUMBIA, N. Y., Nov. 8.—Chairman Dick and State Librarian Smith are at work on an estimate of the vote from the district. Many are not yet heard from at all, and in a number of those that have reported, the margin made on the congressional ticket, instead of the state ticket. Telegrams are being sent to the county chairmen for specific action. State Librarian Smith says now that the republican plurality will probably approach 50,000. Chairman Dick now says that S. R. Harris is certainly elected in the Third district, and A. S. McIntire in the Seventeenth district, making the republican strength in the next Ohio delegation five.

It does not concede the election of Sore in the Third district, nor favors in the Fourth, but he has a telegram from W. D. Davis, the republican candidate in the Fourth district, in which he claims his election. The democrats can not have more than two, and possibly no members of the next Ohio delegation in congress.

COLUMBIA, N. Y., Nov. 8.—The only report we have the republican candidate in the Third district, making the republican strength in the next Ohio delegation five.

Chairman Dick made a comprehensive estimate, based upon the report of the county chairmen, that the state is from 18,000 to 19,000 republican. He also claims that the republican congressional delegation except Gen. A. L. Harris in the Third district, would be elected in the next Ohio delegation.

SIX KILLED.

Two Trains on the B. & O. Railroad Come Together.

Two Engineers, a Fireman, Brakeman and Two Mail Clerks Dead.

Two Other Mail Clerks Were Injured—It Is Claimed That None of the Passengers Were Killed.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., Nov. 8.—A disastrous collision between a passenger and freight train, resulting in the loss of six lives, occurred at Rosencrout siding, 105 miles east of Pittsburgh, on the Baltimore and Ohio railroad, at 10 o'clock Wednesday evening. The killed are: Engineer Henry Bush, of the passenger train; Fireman McCarthy; Engineer Howning, of the freight train; Brakeman Manning of the freight train.

Two mail clerks, names not known. The trains wrecked were the Chicago express No. 3, westbound, and the first section of eastbound train No. 61, a fast stock train. The freight train had an order to reach Pine Grove against the passenger train. Engineer Howning discarded this order, and this caused the accident.

J. L. Pierce and J. G. DeGrans, two other mail clerks, were injured. The railroad here could not learn the names of the dead clerks. None of the passengers were injured.

A Connellville special says that ten or twelve passengers are reported killed, and that the first coach was smashed to splinters, and later the wreck took place. The railroad also states that the dead bodies of the railroad employees had not been recovered up to midnight. All traffic was completely blocked, and trains were being run via Grafton and Fairmont.

A wrecking train, with surgeons, is on the ground, and Supt. Catter left for the scene of the disaster on a special train. The Connellville report does not include Brakeman Manning among the dead.

Supt. Patton, of this city states that, as far as he can learn, none of the passengers were injured, and this is probably the case.

Chinese Murders. TOKYO, Japan, Nov. 8.—The Chinese make no prisoners. From the killed and wounded alike they drop off the heads and make bunches of the latter by passing through the mouths and gutlets as a butcher does with a leashed of trout. Field Marshal Yamagata, who commands the Japanese army in Korea, has warned his men in general order, not to become prisoners of the Chinese, but at the same time has exhorted them to reverence the canons of civilization, and treat the enemy's wounded and captives as they would treat compatriots. Both injunctions are obeyed.
